2.2. Instructions by the Customer: Subject to Clause 2.2 below, Securitas shall not be obliged to follow any instructions of the Customer other than those specified in the Scope of Work. Invoices are payable within thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice, without any setoff, counterclaim, deduction, or withholding, to the remittance address on the invoice. The Customer's failure to pay any amount when due will be considered a material breach by the Customer. A late charge of 5% per month will be added to balances not paid within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice. Interest accrues daily from (and including) the due date to (but excluding) the date of actual payment and is calculated on actual days elapsed and a year of 365 days. You will be required to pay all Fees due to Securitas upon receipt of any request for payment under this clause. Customer must notify Securitas in writing of any dispute regarding the amount of an invoice within thirty (30) days from the invoice date, otherwise all disputes will be deemed waived. supply ('Recipient') must also pay to the Supplier, an amount equal to the GST payable on the supply ('GST Amount'); and

– the GST Amount must be paid to the Supplier by the Recipient without set off, deduction or requirement for demand, at the same time as the GST exclusive consideration is payable or to be provided.

7.3. Reimbursements (net down): If a payment to a party under this Agreement is a reimbursement or indemnification, calculated by reference to a loss, cost or expense incurred by that party, then the payment will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit to which that party, or the representative member of the GST group that party is a member of (as the case may be) is entitled for that loss, cost or expense.

7.4. Tax invoices: The Recipient need not pay the GST Amount in respect of a taxable supply made under or in connection with this Agreement until the Supplier has given the Recipient a tax invoice in respect of that taxable supply.

7.5. Exclusion of GST from calculations: If a payment is calculated by reference to or as a specified percentage of another amount or revenue stream, that payment shall be calculated by reference to or as a specified percentage of the amount or revenue stream exclusive of GST.

7.6. Adjustments: If an adjustment event arises in respect of a supply made under or in connection with this Agreement, then:

– if the Supplier's corrected GST Amount is less than the previously attributed GST Amount, the Supplier shall refund the difference to the Recipient;

– if the Supplier's corrected GST Amount is greater than the previously attributed GST Amount, the Recipient shall pay the difference to the Supplier;

– the Supplier must issue an adjustment note to the Recipient within 7 Working Days of the adjustment event occurring or otherwise as soon as it becomes aware of the adjustment event; and any payment must be paid to the Supplier or Recipient (as the case may be) within 15 Working Days of the adjustment note being issued by the Supplier.

If the maximum liability is set out under a

Scope of Work for Services rendered then the maximum liability set out in the Scope of Work will prevail for those Services rendered.

8.4. Australian Consumer Law: If the Customer has rights to remedies under the Australian Consumer Law arising from Securitas' failure to meet a consumer guarantee in the provision of the Services (or part thereof), Securitas' liability is limited to re-supplying those Services or paying for the cost of having those Services supplied again.

8.5. Notification Limits for Claims: The Customer shall notify Securitas of any claim arising from the Services in reasonable detail and in writing within thirty (30) days from the date on which the Customer became aware (or should reasonably have become aware) of the occurrence giving rise to the claim. 10.1. Insurance: Securitas will, at all times during the term of this Agreement, maintain insurance related to the liability accepted by Securitas under this Agreement, in amounts and on such terms as Securitas, in its sole discretion, decides. Where practicable, the Customer will take necessary steps to notify individuals that Securitas is collecting their personal information for security purposes, to advise of the purposes for which that information will be used, and ensure that the individuals provide necessary consent for the collection of their personal information. Securitas will follow the Customer's instructions as to the collection, use and disclosure of personal data and will take such technical and organisational measures as may be necessary to keep such data secure and to process it in accordance with the Customer's requirements, including providing necessary access to and correction of any personal information it holds. Data Breach: If either party becomes aware or suspects that there has been loss, unauthorised access to, or disclosure of personal information (a Data Breach) then the party must immediately notify the other party of the Data Breach. The parties will comply with mandatory data breach notifications under the Privacy Act. Once an actual or suspected Data Breach has been identified, the other party will work with the identifying party to investigate whether a Data Breach has occurred and identify the circumstances of the Data Breach. The parties will provide each other with access to and copies of all relevant records and documentation. Where practicable, the parties will work together to identify the point of the Data Breach and the owner of the information will take responsibility for determining whether the Data Breach results in a real risk of serious harm to any of the individuals to whom the information relates, and undertaking related notification steps.

An estimate of reasonable re-employment expenses is $35,000 for technicians or site operators. The parties acknowledge that this is a legitimate pre-estimate of the costs for Securitas' loss and not a penalty and is subject to change pending the role of the employee, and market conditions at the time of solicitation.
